TO KEEP BEST OF PIANOS

The Field-Lippman House Here to Be Distributing Point for This Section of Country.

The store building on West Third street, next door west from the Alderman Dry Goods company, owned by W. B. Frost and formerly occupied by the Mercantile company as part of their large store, has been leased by William A. Lippman of St. Louis, to be occupied by the Field-Lippman Division, Jesse French Piano company, one of the largest piano distributing concerns in America, with headquarters in St. Louis and branches in many large cities of the west and middle west.

The owners of the property are making various changes in the building, and after alterations are completed a large stock of pianos, grand pianos and player pianos will be installed, it was stated that a car load of high grade instruments of various makes was shipped from St. Louis the latter part of this week, containing more than $7,500.00 worth of pianos, and this shipment will be followed by others until a full stock is installed. By shipping in car loads this house saves a considerable amount on each piano.

P. F. Rowlison will have charge and will move here shortly to remain until the store is thoroughly established, perhaps permanently. Mr. Rowlison is an experienced piano man and will find a good place in Maryville for the exploiting of his ability.

The establishment of a local store by this prominent St. Louis house speaks well for the business outlook here, for this house is one of the most conservative in America and does not establish distributing points, branches, agencies and sales divisions unless the localities offer excellent promise of profitable returns. Mr. Lippman, when broached on the subject of the outlook for trade here, stated that he did not pose as a prophet of conditions, but despite the depressing view which some people seemed to take, he was looking forward to a large trade this fall, regardless of the present conditions of the weather and business. Mr. Lippman is one of the kind of men who hold always an optimistic view of affairs, and hitches to that optimistic faith a passion for hard work that surely is in part responsible for the large measure of success that he has attained. Mr. Lippman says that the heads of the large establishments of St. Louis, including some of the most successful men in America, are looking for a large volume of trade this fall, with prices good and cash in abundance. Citing a statement made recently by the head of the great Simmons Hardware company, a gentleman who is declared to be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, student of conditions in America, this man said that whether we had full crops or only partial crops the business this fall and winter would be tremendous, and he was looking for records to be broken.

OPENED MUSIC STUDIO IN COLORADO

Guy Neal and Glenn Goff, two Maryville young men who are recent graduates of the Maryville Conservatory of Music, have opened a music studio at Monte Vista, Col., and are doing well. Mr. Neal is a graduate and post-graduate of the Conservatory, finishing his post-graduate course in December last. Mr. Goff graduated with the June class of 1911.

Both young men are talented musicians, are ambitious and energetic, and as Monte Vista is the center of a rich and highly cultivated agricultural country, and the people entirely up-to-date, there is no reason why the Maryville boys should not build up a great school of music. The business outlook for Monte Vista is great this year in everything. Two thousand car loads of potatoes alone have been shipped from that point.

FORMER RESIDENTS ARE VISITING IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Denny of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in Maryville Tuesday noon on a visit to their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Rittenour and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Montgomery. They came here from Fillmore, where they have been visiting their sons, L. D. and Edward Denny, who live on a farm near Fillmore. Mr. Denny and his family formerly lived in Burlington Junction community, where he engaged in farming a number of years. He will be well remembered by the older residents here, as he took a prominent part in Democratic politics and represented our county in several congressional and state conventions. Mr. and Mrs. Denny moved to California several years ago and are delighted with that country.

CHILTON PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL MEETING

Rev. Dr. C. M. Chilton, pastor of the First Christian church, of St. Joseph, has been elected president of the national convention of Christian churches, which is being held at Portland, Ore.

This is a great honor, but one worthily bestowed, the many Maryville friends of this splendid, good man will all agree. Dr. Chilton preached the opening sermon of the convention. His election as president of the national organization preceded his sermon. The honor came to hom unexpectedly, and in writing to his mother, Mrs. C. B. Chilton of Stanberry, of it, he said he was so filled with a sense of the great responsibility before him that he was barely conscious of what he preached

SHOULD OWN PLANT

SENTIMENT AT PUBLIC MEETING SEEMS TO BE THAT WAY.

THEY ARE FOR NEW PLANT

No Action Was Taken in a Way That Would Give an Actual Test of the Feeling of Those Present.

A very representative gathering of the citizens of Maryville met in the court house Monday night at the call of Mayor Robey to consider the water question. There were probably between 200 and 250 present, and practically every calling in the city was represented. The temper of those present was unmistakably expressed as to one thing at least—that the present condition of the water supply should be remedied at once, regardless of expense, and that the mayor and council will be upheld in any reasonable expenditure looking to that end. While the sentiment of the citizens is divided as to the ultimate solution of the matter of a franchise to the old company, the taking over the old plant or the building of a new one there was absolutely no division of opinion as to the necessity for immediate action by the council looking to the securing of an increased amount of water, sufficient in quantity to flush sewers and provide an adequate supply for the use of the people. It was further apparent that it was the nearly unanimous sentiment of those present that temporary relief at least could be secured by sinking wells in the lowlands of the river. Upon the question of a renewal of a franchise to the old company, while no resolutions were introduced or passed, the sentiment was plainly apparent that the council was justified in refusing to take up or submit to a vote the proposition made by the company. There was also an apparent sentiment against the city buying the old plant, either at the company's price or at a valuation to be fixed by commissioners appointed for that purpose. The sentiment was stronger for the issuance of bonds in a sufficient amount for the building of an entirely new plant, to be owned and operated by the city. However, none of these things were acted upon in a way that would give an actual test of the feeling of those present.

After the meeting had been called to order and the object stated by the mayor, C. C. Corwin was elected chairman. In taking the chair Mr. Corwin stated that he had visited the river in company with a number of business men and had observed conditions carefully, and that the present supply was being secured by digging ditches or trenches between the pools of water in the bed of the river and draining them down to the dam.

Mr. Roseberry made a statement of the company's position, going into the question of the formation of the company, and how the present stockholders had secured control and at what price. He told also of the cost of operating the plant and of what income was necessary to pay the necessary expenses. He was asked a number of questions, among them as to whether the company had done everything it could to prepare for the emergency, after it became apparent there was a drouth coming. In answer Mr. Roseberry stated that the water in the reservoir was kept at a depth of eighteen inches more than was considered safe by the employes of the company and against their protest. That muskrats had rendered the dam unfit for holding a greater amount of water, and that they had been unable to repair the dam or find the muskrat.

Following, Mr. Robey read letters from a number of cities in Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, giving details as to rates, ownership and source of supply of their water companies. The rates in every instance were much below that obtaining in Maryville.

Dr. J. W. Dean struck the popular keynote when he said that he was in favor of meeting the present emergency without regard to what other cities were doing, and that the question of a future settlement must wait on relieving the situation now. The doctor was also strongly opposed to either giving the old company a new franchise or buying the plant.

S. R. Beech said he was going to say the word with the bark on, but before he got through he peeled the bark off. Mr. Beech thought the proper solution was to give the old company or some new company a franchise at what Maryville thought a reasonable rate, and if they didn't give the service for the city to take the plant and operate it at that price, and if there was any money left after paying expenses, give it to the company. If no one could be found to take a franchise on those terms, let the city issue bonds and build a new plant, but never take the old plant and worn out machinery. Both Dr. Dean and Mr. Beech received applause on this phase of their talks.

N. Sisson proposed three things to be done: First, authorize the council to "prospect" for water; second, to get the company to submit a proposition for a new franchise and let the people vote on it; third, submit a proposition to a vote for a $1,000 bond issue.

S. G. Gillam made an extended statement of his investigations of the water question. Mr. Gillam has made numerous trips to other towns and has examined every detail of the question, having inquired into the operation of the various plants, the cost of fuel, examined the books to find the figures for himself, has taken natural conditions and physical advantages into consideration, has examined into the law bearing on the situation, and has every statement in shape that it seemed susceptible of almost immediate verification. Mr. Gillam advocated the advantages of the "1905 law" in taking over the old plant. He said he had been formerly opposed to municipal ownership of the plant, but that his investigations had convinced him that the economical thing for the city to do was to own and operate the plant. Mr. Gillam expressed the belief that if the company would expend $45,000 in improvements the plant then would be worth not over $90,000.

According to the report of Burns & McDonald, engineers hired by the city five years ago, the city can install a new water plant for $95,000, and if the present company goes ahead with improving their plant to the extent of $45,000, added to the value of the plant Burns & McDonald placed on it of $76,000, the company would want about $120,000 for the plant, when a new plant can be installed for $95,000.

W. A. Blagg stated the position of the council in the matter, and said they wanted to do what the people wanted them to do in the matter, but they asked the people to let them know what it was, because they didn't want to submit propositions to a vote for the mere purpose of having it voted down. Mr. Blagg, in speaking of the necessity for a solution of the present crisis, spoke of the feasibility of sinking wells close to the pumping station and using any water that might be secured, said that if the people wanted it done the council would do it, but that the ground belonged to the water company, and that their permission must be secured or else the city would be a trespasser. He asked Mr. Roseberry if the company would consent to the city sinking these well on their property, and if the company would pump the water if any was secured. Mr. Roseberry said the company would be glad to get the water, and finally told Mr. Blagg the company would permit the city to put in the wells. Mr. Blagg then went into the operation of the "1905 law," and said it was passed for the benefit of people that had old, worn out plants to sell. Mr. Blagg said if the company sold under that law, and the city went to work and improved the plant and then failed to make it pay interest, sinking fund and operating expenses, as well as any other charges against it, the company could take it over under their mortgage, and when they did it carried with it a thirty-year franchise and the city lost everything they put into it. Mr. Blagg said the city did not want an old worn out plant, they did not want to give the old company a new franchise at their terms, and that when the city issued bonds and started to build a new plant the old company would be mighty willing to treat with the city on a reasonable basis.

Mr. Roseberry stated that the mains were not rusted out, and that they were in good shape, and according to expert estimates would last for 100 years.

Mr. S. G. Gillam read from the report of the commission that investigated the plant in 1906 a statement bearing out the contention of Mr. Roseberry, and that mains had been dug up at some places in good condition that had been in the ground over a hundred years.

Misses Kate and Grace Ellis of Guilford, who have been visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roelofson of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyle, living southeast of the city, returned to their home Tuesday.

RASCO TO ST. JOSEPH

TAKEN BACK BY AN ORDER OF THE COUNTY COURT.

SAYS JAIL INSUFFICIENT

Sheriff Tilson Left With Rasco This Afternoon—to Remain Until He is Needed Here.

Sheriff W. R. Tilson and Deputy Sheriff Bert Mack took Hez Rasco to the Buchanan county jail in St. Joseph, leaving on this afternoon's Burlington train. An order was made by the county court in vacation directing the sheriff to take Rasco back on account of the condition the jail is in.

Rasco has been in jail here since the first of January, before that time having been in the Buchanan county jail. He was convicted on the charge of murdering the Hubbell family and was sentenced to hang, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court and a stay of execution was issued. Rasco appears to be in the best of health and seems just like another man, not worrying any and seemingly not caring.

The order of the judges of the county court to Sheriff Tilson follows:

"It appearing to the judges of the Nodaway county court in vacation that the jail of said county is insufficient in which to keep the prisoner, Hez Rasco, the sheriff is requested and directed to safely convey said prisoner to the Buchanan county jail and there deliver him into the custody of the jailer of that institution until directed by the proper authorities to return the prisoner back."

CITY COUNCIL TO MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

The city council will meet again in special session this, Tuesday, evening at the city hall, at which time it is thought an order for a special election will be called to vote on the proposition of issuing bonds of $100,000 to install a new water plant in Maryville.

The expressions of the people seem to be that they would favor the city installing a new plant.

Manager Roseberry has now a number of men up the river digging ditches, and the water supply at present is about the same as it was several days ago. It is thought by the water company that enough water may be had up the river that it will not be necessary to cut off the supply altogether.

Charles E. Ballinger and daughters, Misses Alice and Emma Ballinger, living south of town, were city visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. W. V. Mountjoy and her sister, Mrs. John Gex, of near Graham were in the city Tuesday.

Frank Wible of Hopkins visited in Maryville Tuesday with his aunt, Mrs. R. E. Snodgrass.

Miss Chloe Davis of Arkoe was in Maryville shopping Monday.

Alderman's July Clearance Sale

This Clearance Sale was preceded by a reassorting and a repricing of our remaining spring and summer merchandise. No section of the store escaped this rigorous inspection. It is our house cleaning time when we lower our stocks to the lowest possible point, therefore, we cannot afford to be other than generous in the amount of the reductions. Every price ticket confirms this.

The first three days of this sale indicates that it will be a success---as the twenty-eight Clearing Sales that have proceeded it have been. This in itself is a sufficient indication that our methods of conducting these sales are right, for no sale could be repeated this number of times unless it was properly managed and fairly conducted.

To the hundreds of people who take advantage of these Clearance sales we urge immediate action. There is an abundance of rich opportunities for economical buying; prices that have already been reduced are cut to a still lower level. It will pay you to visit every section, for genuine bargains are to be found at every turn.

Free Dyspepsia Sample

Sufferers from indigestion are waking up to the fact that peppermint lozenges, charcoal and "dyspepsia cures" are only makeshifts in the cure of so troublesome a complaint as chronic indigestion. What is required is something that will not only relieve but which will tone and train the digestive apparatus to again do its work normally, and this these simple remedies cannot do.

There is something more to the cure of indigestion than sweetening the breath, and yet a remedy that only contains digestive ingredients will not cure permanently, as the basis of indigestion is poor bowel circulation, and that requires a scientific laxative. We know of no remedy that combines these requirements better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been sold for a quarter of a century.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a laxative tonic, a scientific blending of natural ingredients for the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sour stomach, sick headache and similar complaints. Its ingredients will so strengthen and tone the stomach and bowel muscles that they will again do their work naturally, and when that has been accomplished your trouble is over. Fannie Stuart, Staunton, Va., was a long-time sufferer, as was O. Tuck, Blackburn, Mo., and they both found their cure with this remedy. They became convinced that pills and tablets, salts, "dyspepsia cures," etc., were at best only temporary reliefs. They first accepted Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free sample bottle, which he willingly sends to anyone who forwards name and address. Later, having convinced themselves through the free sample, they bought Syrup Pepsin of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

LABOR LEADERS' PROTEST FUTILE

Judge Wright Insists on Hearing Contempt Case.

COURT CHARGED WITH BIAS.

Motion Is Made After Justice Stated That Adverse Report From Committee Would Not Have Been Accepted. Change of Venue Refused.

Washington, July 18.—Protests against further hearing before Justice Wright on the ground that he already had formed and expressed an opinion against the defendants and attempts to stop the hearing by technical objections having proved futile, Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, labor leaders, will appear in the District supreme court again next Monday to insist that the latest contempt charges against them in connection with the Bucks Stove and Range case be made more specific. Continuance for a week was agreed on after the prosecutors had demanded the two days allowed by law to answer a motion for a bill of particulars.

The American Federation of Labor leaders showed no disposition to offer the apology which the report of the committee of lawyers suggested might end the proceedings. In fact, the order of the court citing them to appear and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt was interpreted as affording them no opportunity to apologize even had they been so disposed.

A motion to dismiss on the ground that the order was incomplete was sustained, but when Justice Wright directed the marshal to serve new papers forthwith the point was waived. Next the defendants moved to dismiss because the report of the committee of lawyers submitted to the court in the case was not a proper one, in that the members of the committee did not and could not exercise the judicial qualities required in the order.

Change of Venue Refused.

This motion was overruled, the court holding that the members of the committee were prosecutors and not called on to exercise judicial functions. In ruling, the court remarked that even had the committee reported that there were no reasonable grounds for contempt charges, such a report would not have been received. Gompers' attorney at once protested that in view of this expression by the court they should not be compelled to proceed, but that Justice Wright should certify the case to some other justice for trial.

Justice Wright curtly dismissed the protest with "You may proceed."

An exception was noted.

The motion to strike out the names of Messrs. Davenport, Darlington and Beck as prosecutors and substitute that of the district attorney was overruled insofar as the members of the committee were concerned. The court gave the district attorney time to consider whether he would be willing to have his name added to the committee as a prosecutor.

RIOTS AT TWO CHURCHES

Exchange of Pastors Not Satisfactory at Either Place.

New York, July 18.—An exchange of pastors pleased the congregation of the Catholic church of St. Stephen of Hungary here no more, apparently, than it did the Hungarian church at South Bend, Ind. Rev. John Froelich, who came here from South Bend to take the place of Rev. Paul Kavacs, is looking for legal and ecclesiastical authority to remove from the door of St. Stephen's a padlock attached by his angry parishioners. Dispatches from South Bend say that Father Kavacs occupied Father Froelich's place there only after the police had subdued a riot and made several arrests.

The trustees of St. Stephen's had made their own choice of a priest to take Father Kavacs' place, and did not fancy the arrangement between the former pastor and Father Froelich to exchange places.

Soda Fountain Shock Kills.

Flint, Mich., July 18.—Elmer Benjamin, eighteen years old, was electrocuted in Holmes & Martin's drug store. Benjamin was a clerk at the soda fountain and the shock that killed him is believed to have come through that medium. Witnesses say he put his hand on an electric globe and leaned against the fountain. He gave one piercing scream and held to the fountain until the fuses were cut out, when he dropped to the floor.

Iowa Falls Man Bankrupt.

Iowa Falls, Ia., July 18.—S. Freedman has filed a petition in bankruptcy and lists his liabilities at $4,000 and assets nothing. A meeting of the creditors will be held July 25. For a year or more past Freedman has been manager of the Blackhawk Chattel Loan company at Waterloo.

Pests Ravage Illinois Oat Crops.

Chicago, July 18.—Army worms and grasshoppers have caused heavy losses to farmers in Kane, Kendall, De Kalb and Will counties. Insects have ravaged oat fields to such an extent that hundreds of acres yield but a half crop.

SENATE PASSES PUBLICITY BILL

House Measure Used as Basis With Amendments Added.

PRIMARIES ARE ALSO INCLUDED

Most Drastic Campaign Legislation Ever Approved by Either Body—Ten Cents Per Voter Is Limit of Expenses—Promises to Be Made Public.

Washington, July 18.—The most drastic campaign publicity legislation ever passed in either branch of congress was adopted by the senate practically without a dissenting vote. Using the pre-election publicity bill passed by the house of representatives as a basis, the senate contructed a proposed law with the following features:

No candidate for the senate or house shall spend in the election more than a sum equal to 10 cents for each vote in his district or state.

No senatorial candidate shall spend a total of more than $10,000 in the primary and general election, and no candidate for the house shall spend more than $5,000.

Publicity must be given to all primary campaign contributions and expenditures.

All general election expenses must be made public before the election, beginning fifteen days before election and making publication each six days until election.

Promises of political jobs must be made public. The bill further makes it illegal to promise political places in order to secure support or to aid in influencing the election of any member of any state legislature.

The bill probably faces prolonged conference between the two houses. It originated in the house as a part of the Democratic legislative program and was designed to require the publication of election expenditures before election, which is not required by the existing publicity law.

The Republicans in the house unsuccessfully attempted to extend the bill to cover primary election expenses. In the senate the primary election amendment, coupled with more radical amendments, was adopted with little opposition.

The senate amendments authorized by the committee on privileges and elections require publicity of all primary election expenses and all pledges of political jobs or favors.

The more rigid portion of the bill, limiting the amount the senatorial or congressional candidate may spend in any election and prohibiting the making of all campaign pledges was proposed by Senator Reed (Mo.) and adopted only after a long debate.

Senator Root (N. Y.) said all senators knew there had been much corruption in elections throughout the country.

Dr. Anna Shaw Returns.

New York, July 18.—A party issue in Norway, in the person of the Rev. Dr. Anna H. Shaw, president of the Women's Suffrage league in America, arrived on the liner New York, fresh from the international convention of suffragists which was held in Stockholm, Sweden, recently. Dr. Shaw brought with her Norwegian newspapers that declared the issues she raised would be fought out in the next national election in Norway.

Mrs. Lea Shows Improvement.

Denver, July 18.—The wife of Senator Lea of Tennessee, who was brought here by her husband because of fear that pneumonia would kill her in the hot moist climate of the east, has been improving every hour since her arrival. Her physician said he no longer considers her condition critical.

NEW ENTERPRISE

tory of this young man—it can scarcely be called history, judging from the point of years, as he is still under the thirties, but in point of accomplishment and industry years do not seem to make the difference nowadays that they made in past time.

Mr. Lippman was born in Maryville, April 8, 1882, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lippman, being the third of five children, the oldest, Charles, Jr., being associated with him in the piano concern in a very important position; Edward G. is vice president of the Vinsonhaler Shoe company of St. Louis; a younger brother, Roy, is farming south of Maryville; an only sister, Flora, lives in Maryville with Mrs. Lippman, on West Fourth street, and it may be of interest to know that this family has lived for nearly forty years on the same home place, and the sons of Mrs. Lippman visit her frequently at the scene of their childhood play days.

Mr. Lippman began his business life in Maryville, in the book and jewelry store of H. T. Crane, and left there to spend ten months in the Spanish-American war service. After a short service in Crane's again, Mr. Lippman next entered the office of N. Sisson & Co., where he remained until he started for Park college, Parkville, Mo. It was at this time that Mr. Lippman's career turned abruptly, an over-use of his eyes during the study at this college forcing him to go to St. Louis for treatment after only six weeks of school. In St. Louis, during optical treatment, he entered the employ of the Vinsonhaler Shoe company, a firm largely owned by Harry Vinsonhaler, formerly a resident of Maryville, and with which Mr. E. G. Lippman is importantly connected. Mr. Lippman was with the shoe house about three years, excepting a short time, during which he worked in the business of insurance.

It was during his spare hours in the shoe business that he started the study of modern business systems, accounting methods, advertising, etc., and the result of this study became apparent when he was asked to take charge of the credit and collection department of the Jesse French Piano company in November, of 1904, without any previous knowledge of the piano business. With an aggressiveness characteristic of all his work, Mr. Lippman stepped into the new business, and after a comprehensive study of the organization planned new systems, methods and innovations which were almost revolutionary in their application, so much so that it took months of hard fighting for Mr. Lippman to convince his superiors, men who had grown gray in the upbuilding of that great institution, that he knew the worth of his theories.

Mr. Lippman's influence was soon apparent in the organization, and it was not long until he became the assistant manager of the St. Louis house; this compelled Mr. Lippman to make a swift and deep study of the art of salesmanship as it applied to the piano business; it was soon apparent that the logical place for his ability was the sales management of the St. Louis division and into this place he was promoted.

Since then many things have happened in the great organization with which Mr. Lippman is identified, and from sales manager of the St. Louis house the move was quick to general manager, director, and last fall he became secretary and treasurer, and, with his brother-in-law, Oscar A. Field, the two young men control that huge business, with branches throughout the west and central states, agencies in hundreds of cities and towns and annual sales of thousands of pianos. A slight idea of their business may be had when it is borne in mind that the company has on hand two thousand pianos.

Chas. F. Lippman Closely Allied With Concern.

Mr. Charles F. Lippman joined his brother, W. A., about six years ago and took a thorough course through the business, till today he holds the very important position of sales manager of the St. Louis division, and is an able lieutenant to Messrs. Field and W. A. Lippman in their management of the general affairs of the concern. Under Mr. Charles Lippman are some of the ablest sales experts in America, and it is a well known fact that the sales organization of the Field-Lippman house holds some of the highest priced men in America, men whose abilities are known from coast to coast. The management of such an organization requires a man of the cool deliberate determination that has been one of Mr. Lippman's characteristics, so well known to his many friends in Maryville. The habit of attention to detail and quick thinking acquired by Mr. Lippman during many years of business in the lumber industry here with the Howell, Rowley and Phares Lumber companies, has stood him in good stead. Mr. Charles Lippman married the oldest daughter of Judge Anthony, and during the years of their residence in Maryville they made hundreds of friends, who have patched with interest and pleasure the rise of Mr. Lippman to a position of such importance.

Mrs. Charles Lippman, like his brother and Mr. Field, passed through various departments of the firm, such as the financial, credit, collection and sales departments, and to his aptitude for sales plans and the handling of men he owed his promotion to the management of the sales department of the St. Louis division.

CHOLERA SITUATION IS REASSURING

But One Death and No Cases in New York.

New York, July 18.—The cholera situation at quarantine is reassuring to Dr. Alvah H. Doty, health officer of the port, and his assistants. In the last twenty-four hours there has been one death, but no new cases have been reported and several of the eighteen persons in the Swinburne island hospital are reported convalescent. Some of those now suffering from the plague are seriously ill, however, and the death list may be swollen within the next few days.

The father dived in where the children were seen to go down and reappeared on the surface for an instant with one in either arm, but thus handicapped was unable to swim.

No Relief for Telephone Girls.

Lincoln, July 18.—Because, in his opinion to Labor Commissioner Guye, telephone companies are neither mechanical, manufacturing nor mercantile institutions, Deputy Attorney General Ayers holds that telephone companies do not violate the law when they employ girls between the hours of 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. The employment of women during these hours is generally forbidden under the female labor law.

BURGESS TELLS OF "JACKPOT"

Testifies in Regard to Conversation With Wiehe.

HELPED PUT LORIMER OVER.

Another Duluth Man Says He Complained That Wisconsin Man Was for Free Lumber After Hines Had Elected Him.

Washington, July 18.—The part officials of the Edward Hines Lumber company took in the election of Senator Lorimer to the senate claimed attention by the Lorimer committee.

William Burgess, an electrical contractor of Duluth, Minn., testified that C. F. Wiehe, secretary of the Edward Hines Lumber company, remarked to him last March that he had subscribed $10,000 to a "jackpot" to elect Lorimer.

Herman H. Hettler, president of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber company of Chicago, a rival to the Hines company, testified that on the day of the election Hines said to him that he personally had elected Lorimer.

On the other hand, Henry Turrish, another business man of Duluth, failed to bear out the testimony of W. H. Cook, a business associate, to the effect that Hines said to them about the time of Lorimer's election that "Old Stephenson" (meaning Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin, so Cook believed) 'after I elected him, was working for free lumber,'" and that the southern Democrats fluctuated in their attitude. Turrish said he remembered nothing about the southern Democrats, but heard Hines say that Stephenson was undecided.

In the testimony of Mr. Burgess the name of a priest, Father Green, was brought into the case as having received a confession from a detective that the detective was employed by a Chicago newspaper to gather "trumped up charges against Lorimer."

Talk With Cook.

On cross-examination, Burgess testified that he was acquainted with W. H. Cook of Duluth, whose versions of conversations with Edward Hines have been disputed by Hines. Burgess said he had talked with Cook about coming to Washington to testify and Cook had merely remarked:

"You'll have a hot time."

"Didn't he say: 'Give 'em h—ll?'" inquired Attorney Haynes.

"He did not."

Burgess said there was no ill-feeling between the Edward Hines Lumber company and himself over a charge he made to the company about ten years ago for the use of a dam in the Black river.

Burgess declared that Wiehe said $100,000 was raised to elect Lorimer. But after Senator Jones had asked why he did not tell that to the Helm committee and suggested that he might have gotten the idea from the newspapers subsequently, Burgess told the committee he was not certain whether Wiehe had said a "jackpot" had been raised.

An affidavit made by Burgess on April 17, which was produced, declared that during the train conversation Wiehe said a detective employed by Editor Kohlsaat had confessed to Father Green that he was employed to get "trumped up" charges against Lorimer. The priest was reputed to have refused absolution unless the confession was put in writing.

Mr. Haynes asked why the witness did not mention "trumped up" charges in his direct examination.

"I don't know," responding the witness. "I cannot say whether he used those words or not, but that was the substance of it."

Department Officials Refuse to Discuss Case of Floyd Robinson.

Washington, July 18.—In connection with the case of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, whose fate as chief of the bureau of chemistry of the agricultural department is in the hands of President Taft, it became known that Floyd Robinson, a member of the bureau of chemistry staff in New York, had been dismissed several weeks ago "for the good of the service." The department officials decline to discuss the case. Dr. Robinson was prominent in aiding Dr. Wiley in the benzoate of soda cases.

Gentleman Burglar Deported.

New York, July 18.—Carl von Metzmeyer, a former army officer in Norway, where his father is rated a wealthy man, will not have to serve time for his robberies in Brooklyn. The Norwegian confessed to a score of burglaries. Judge Dike gave him the choice of five years in Sing Sing or immediate departure for his home in Norway. Metzmeyer, who has been called the "gentleman burglar," was delighted to go home. Judge Dike said it was better to have Metzmeyer out of the country than to have the people paying for his keep in prison.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

TO KEEP BEST OF PIANOS

The Field-Lippman House Here to Be Distributing Point for This Section of Country.

The store building on West Third street, next door west from the Alderman Dry Goods company, owned by W. B. Frost and formerly occupied by the Mercantile company as part of their large store, has been leased by William A. Lippman of St. Louis, to be occupied by the Field-Lippman Division, Jesse French Piano company, one of the largest piano distributing concerns in America, with headquarters in St. Louis and branches in many large cities of the west and middle west.

The owners of the property are making various changes in the building, and after alterations are completed a large stock of pianos, grand pianos and player pianos will be installed, it was stated that a car load of high grade instruments of various makes was shipped from St. Louis the latter part of this week, containing more than $7,500.00 worth of pianos, and this shipment will be followed by others until a full stock is installed. By shipping in car loads this house saves a considerable amount on each piano.

P. F. Rowlison will have charge and will move here shortly to remain until the store is thoroughly established, perhaps permanently. Mr. Rowlison is an experienced piano man and will find a good place in Maryville for the exploiting of his ability.

The establishment of a local store by this prominent St. Louis house speaks well for the business outlook here, for this house is one of the most conservative in America and does not establish distributing points, branches, agencies and sales divisions unless the localities offer excellent promise of profitable returns. Mr. Lippman, when broached on the subject of the outlook for trade here, stated that he did not pose as a prophet of conditions, but despite the depressing view which some people seemed to take, he was looking forward to a large trade this fall, regardless of the present conditions of the weather and business. Mr. Lippman is one of the kind of men who hold always an optimistic view of affairs, and hitches to that optimistic faith a passion for hard work that surely is in part responsible for the large measure of success that he has attained. Mr. Lippman says that the heads of the large establishments of St. Louis, including some of the most successful men in America, are looking for a large volume of trade this fall, with prices good and cash in abundance. Citing a statement made recently by the head of the great Simmons Hardware company, a gentleman who is declared to be one of the greatest, if not the greatest, student of conditions in America, this man said that whether we had full crops or only partial crops the business this fall and winter would be tremendous, and he was looking for records to be broken.

Guy Neal and Glenn Goff, two Maryville young men who are recent graduates of the Maryville Conservatory of Music, have opened a music studio at Monte Vista, Col., and are doing well. Mr. Neal is a graduate and post-graduate of the Conservatory, finishing his post-graduate course in December last. Mr. Goff graduated with the June class of 1911.

Both young men are talented musicians, are ambitious and energetic, and as Monte Vista is the center of a rich and highly cultivated agricultural country, and the people entirely up-to-date, there is no reason why the Maryville boys should not build up a great school of music. The business outlook for Monte Vista is great this year in everything. Two thousand car loads of potatoes alone have been shipped from that point.

FORMER RESIDENTS ARE VISITING IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Denny of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in Maryville Tuesday noon on a visit to their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Rittenour and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Montgomery. They came here from Fillmore, where they have been visiting their sons, L. D. and Edward Denny, who live on a farm near Fillmore. Mr. Denny and his family formerly lived in Burlington Junction community, where he engaged in farming a number of years. He will be well remembered by the older residents here, as he took a prominent part in Democratic politics and represented our county in several congressional and state conventions. Mr. and Mrs. Denny moved to California several years ago and are delighted with that country.

CHILTON PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL MEETING

Rev. Dr. C. M. Chilton, pastor of the First Christian church, of St. Joseph, has been elected president of the national convention of Christian churches, which is being held at Portland, Ore.

This is a great honor, but one worthily bestowed, the many Maryville friends of this splendid, good man will all agree. Dr. Chilton preached the opening sermon of the convention. His election as president of the national organization preceded his sermon. The honor came to hom unexpectedly, and in writing to his mother, Mrs. C. B. Chilton of Stanberry, of it, he said he was so filled with a sense of the great responsibility before him that he was barely conscious of what he preached

SENTIMENT AT PUBLIC MEETING SEEMS TO BE THAT WAY.

A very representative gathering of the citizens of Maryville met in the court house Monday night at the call of Mayor Robey to consider the water question. There were probably between 200 and 250 present, and practically every calling in the city was represented. The temper of those present was unmistakably expressed as to one thing at least—that the present condition of the water supply should be remedied at once, regardless of expense, and that the mayor and council will be upheld in any reasonable expenditure looking to that end. While the sentiment of the citizens is divided as to the ultimate solution of the matter of a franchise to the old company, the taking over the old plant or the building of a new one there was absolutely no division of opinion as to the necessity for immediate action by the council looking to the securing of an increased amount of water, sufficient in quantity to flush sewers and provide an adequate supply for the use of the people. It was further apparent that it was the nearly unanimous sentiment of those present that temporary relief at least could be secured by sinking wells in the lowlands of the river. Upon the question of a renewal of a franchise to the old company, while no resolutions were introduced or passed, the sentiment was plainly apparent that the council was justified in refusing to take up or submit to a vote the proposition made by the company. There was also an apparent sentiment against the city buying the old plant, either at the company's price or at a valuation to be fixed by commissioners appointed for that purpose. The sentiment was stronger for the issuance of bonds in a sufficient amount for the building of an entirely new plant, to be owned and operated by the city. However, none of these things were acted upon in a way that would give an actual test of the feeling of those present.

After the meeting had been called to order and the object stated by the mayor, C. C. Corwin was elected chairman. In taking the chair Mr. Corwin stated that he had visited the river in company with a number of business men and had observed conditions carefully, and that the present supply was being secured by digging ditches or trenches between the pools of water in the bed of the river and draining them down to the dam.

Mr. Roseberry made a statement of the company's position, going into the question of the formation of the company, and how the present stockholders had secured control and at what price. He told also of the cost of operating the plant and of what income was necessary to pay the necessary expenses. He was asked a number of questions, among them as to whether the company had done everything it could to prepare for the emergency, after it became apparent there was a drouth coming. In answer Mr. Roseberry stated that the water in the reservoir was kept at a depth of eighteen inches more than was considered safe by the employes of the company and against their protest. That muskrats had rendered the dam unfit for holding a greater amount of water, and that they had been unable to repair the dam or find the muskrat.

Following, Mr. Robey read letters from a number of cities in Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, giving details as to rates, ownership and source of supply of their water companies. The rates in every instance were much below that obtaining in Maryville.

Dr. J. W. Dean struck the popular keynote when he said that he was in favor of meeting the present emergency without regard to what other cities were doing, and that the question of a future settlement must wait on relieving the situation now. The doctor was also strongly opposed to either giving the old company a new franchise or buying the plant.

S. R. Beech said he was going to say the word with the bark on, but before he got through he peeled the bark off. Mr. Beech thought the proper solution was to give the old company or some new company a franchise at what Maryville thought a reasonable rate, and if they didn't give the service for the city to take the plant and operate it at that price, and if there was any money left after paying expenses, give it to the company. If no one could be found to take a franchise on those terms, let the city issue bonds and build a new plant, but never take the old plant and worn out machinery. Both Dr. Dean and Mr. Beech received applause on this phase of their talks.

N. Sisson proposed three things to be done: First, authorize the council to "prospect" for water; second, to get the company to submit a proposition for a new franchise and let the people vote on it; third, submit a proposition to a vote for a $1,000 bond issue.

S. G. Gillam made an extended statement of his investigations of the water question. Mr. Gillam has made numerous trips to other towns and has examined every detail of the question, having inquired into the operation of the various plants, the cost of fuel, examined the books to find the figures for himself, has taken natural conditions and physical advantages into consideration, has examined into the law bearing on the situation, and has every statement in shape that it seemed susceptible of almost immediate verification. Mr. Gillam advocated the advantages of the "1905 law" in taking over the old plant. He said he had been formerly opposed to municipal ownership of the plant, but that his investigations had convinced him that the economical thing for the city to do was to own and operate the plant. Mr. Gillam expressed the belief that if the company would expend $45,000 in improvements the plant then would be worth not over $90,000.

According to the report of Burns & McDonald, engineers hired by the city five years ago, the city can install a new water plant for $95,000, and if the present company goes ahead with improving their plant to the extent of $45,000, added to the value of the plant Burns & McDonald placed on it of $76,000, the company would want about $120,000 for the plant, when a new plant can be installed for $95,000.

W. A. Blagg stated the position of the council in the matter, and said they wanted to do what the people wanted them to do in the matter, but they asked the people to let them know what it was, because they didn't want to submit propositions to a vote for the mere purpose of having it voted down. Mr. Blagg, in speaking of the necessity for a solution of the present crisis, spoke of the feasibility of sinking wells close to the pumping station and using any water that might be secured, said that if the people wanted it done the council would do it, but that the ground belonged to the water company, and that their permission must be secured or else the city would be a trespasser. He asked Mr. Roseberry if the company would consent to the city sinking these well on their property, and if the company would pump the water if any was secured. Mr. Roseberry said the company would be glad to get the water, and finally told Mr. Blagg the company would permit the city to put in the wells. Mr. Blagg then went into the operation of the "1905 law," and said it was passed for the benefit of people that had old, worn out plants to sell. Mr. Blagg said if the company sold under that law, and the city went to work and improved the plant and then failed to make it pay interest, sinking fund and operating expenses, as well as any other charges against it, the company could take it over under their mortgage, and when they did it carried with it a thirty-year franchise and the city lost everything they put into it. Mr. Blagg said the city did not want an old worn out plant, they did not want to give the old company a new franchise at their terms, and that when the city issued bonds and started to build a new plant the old company would be mighty willing to treat with the city on a reasonable basis.

Mr. Roseberry stated that the mains were not rusted out, and that they were in good shape, and according to expert estimates would last for 100 years.

Mr. S. G. Gillam read from the report of the commission that investigated the plant in 1906 a statement bearing out the contention of Mr. Roseberry, and that mains had been dug up at some places in good condition that had been in the ground over a hundred years.

Misses Kate and Grace Ellis of Guilford, who have been visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roelofson of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyle, living southeast of the city, returned to their home Tuesday.

TAKEN BACK BY AN ORDER OF THE COUNTY COURT.

Sheriff W. R. Tilson and Deputy Sheriff Bert Mack took Hez Rasco to the Buchanan county jail in St. Joseph, leaving on this afternoon's Burlington train. An order was made by the county court in vacation directing the sheriff to take Rasco back on account of the condition the jail is in.

Rasco has been in jail here since the first of January, before that time having been in the Buchanan county jail. He was convicted on the charge of murdering the Hubbell family and was sentenced to hang, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court and a stay of execution was issued. Rasco appears to be in the best of health and seems just like another man, not worrying any and seemingly not caring.

The order of the judges of the county court to Sheriff Tilson follows:

"It appearing to the judges of the Nodaway county court in vacation that the jail of said county is insufficient in which to keep the prisoner, Hez Rasco, the sheriff is requested and directed to safely convey said prisoner to the Buchanan county jail and there deliver him into the custody of the jailer of that institution until directed by the proper authorities to return the prisoner back."

CITY COUNCIL TO MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

The city council will meet again in special session this, Tuesday, evening at the city hall, at which time it is thought an order for a special election will be called to vote on the proposition of issuing bonds of $100,000 to install a new water plant in Maryville.

The expressions of the people seem to be that they would favor the city installing a new plant.

Manager Roseberry has now a number of men up the river digging ditches, and the water supply at present is about the same as it was several days ago. It is thought by the water company that enough water may be had up the river that it will not be necessary to cut off the supply altogether.

Charles E. Ballinger and daughters, Misses Alice and Emma Ballinger, living south of town, were city visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. W. V. Mountjoy and her sister, Mrs. John Gex, of near Graham were in the city Tuesday.

Frank Wible of Hopkins visited in Maryville Tuesday with his aunt, Mrs. R. E. Snodgrass.

Miss Chloe Davis of Arkoe was in Maryville shopping Monday.

This Clearance Sale was preceded by a reassorting and a repricing of our remaining spring and summer merchandise. No section of the store escaped this rigorous inspection. It is our house cleaning time when we lower our stocks to the lowest possible point, therefore, we cannot afford to be other than generous in the amount of the reductions. Every price ticket confirms this.

The first three days of this sale indicates that it will be a success---as the twenty-eight Clearing Sales that have proceeded it have been. This in itself is a sufficient indication that our methods of conducting these sales are right, for no sale could be repeated this number of times unless it was properly managed and fairly conducted.

To the hundreds of people who take advantage of these Clearance sales we urge immediate action. There is an abundance of rich opportunities for economical buying; prices that have already been reduced are cut to a still lower level. It will pay you to visit every section, for genuine bargains are to be found at every turn.

Free Dyspepsia Sample

Sufferers from indigestion are waking up to the fact that peppermint lozenges, charcoal and "dyspepsia cures" are only makeshifts in the cure of so troublesome a complaint as chronic indigestion. What is required is something that will not only relieve but which will tone and train the digestive apparatus to again do its work normally, and this these simple remedies cannot do.

There is something more to the cure of indigestion than sweetening the breath, and yet a remedy that only contains digestive ingredients will not cure permanently, as the basis of indigestion is poor bowel circulation, and that requires a scientific laxative. We know of no remedy that combines these requirements better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been sold for a quarter of a century.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a laxative tonic, a scientific blending of natural ingredients for the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sour stomach, sick headache and similar complaints. Its ingredients will so strengthen and tone the stomach and bowel muscles that they will again do their work naturally, and when that has been accomplished your trouble is over. Fannie Stuart, Staunton, Va., was a long-time sufferer, as was O. Tuck, Blackburn, Mo., and they both found their cure with this remedy. They became convinced that pills and tablets, salts, "dyspepsia cures," etc., were at best only temporary reliefs. They first accepted Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free sample bottle, which he willingly sends to anyone who forwards name and address. Later, having convinced themselves through the free sample, they bought Syrup Pepsin of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Judge Wright Insists on Hearing Contempt Case.

COURT CHARGED WITH BIAS.

Motion Is Made After Justice Stated That Adverse Report From Committee Would Not Have Been Accepted. Change of Venue Refused.

Washington, July 18.—Protests against further hearing before Justice Wright on the ground that he already had formed and expressed an opinion against the defendants and attempts to stop the hearing by technical objections having proved futile, Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, labor leaders, will appear in the District supreme court again next Monday to insist that the latest contempt charges against them in connection with the Bucks Stove and Range case be made more specific. Continuance for a week was agreed on after the prosecutors had demanded the two days allowed by law to answer a motion for a bill of particulars.

The American Federation of Labor leaders showed no disposition to offer the apology which the report of the committee of lawyers suggested might end the proceedings. In fact, the order of the court citing them to appear and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt was interpreted as affording them no opportunity to apologize even had they been so disposed.

A motion to dismiss on the ground that the order was incomplete was sustained, but when Justice Wright directed the marshal to serve new papers forthwith the point was waived. Next the defendants moved to dismiss because the report of the committee of lawyers submitted to the court in the case was not a proper one, in that the members of the committee did not and could not exercise the judicial qualities required in the order.

Change of Venue Refused.

This motion was overruled, the court holding that the members of the committee were prosecutors and not called on to exercise judicial functions. In ruling, the court remarked that even had the committee reported that there were no reasonable grounds for contempt charges, such a report would not have been received. Gompers' attorney at once protested that in view of this expression by the court they should not be compelled to proceed, but that Justice Wright should certify the case to some other justice for trial.

Justice Wright curtly dismissed the protest with "You may proceed."

An exception was noted.

The motion to strike out the names of Messrs. Davenport, Darlington and Beck as prosecutors and substitute that of the district attorney was overruled insofar as the members of the committee were concerned. The court gave the district attorney time to consider whether he would be willing to have his name added to the committee as a prosecutor.

RIOTS AT TWO CHURCHES

Exchange of Pastors Not Satisfactory at Either Place.

New York, July 18.—An exchange of pastors pleased the congregation of the Catholic church of St. Stephen of Hungary here no more, apparently, than it did the Hungarian church at South Bend, Ind. Rev. John Froelich, who came here from South Bend to take the place of Rev. Paul Kavacs, is looking for legal and ecclesiastical authority to remove from the door of St. Stephen's a padlock attached by his angry parishioners. Dispatches from South Bend say that Father Kavacs occupied Father Froelich's place there only after the police had subdued a riot and made several arrests.

The trustees of St. Stephen's had made their own choice of a priest to take Father Kavacs' place, and did not fancy the arrangement between the former pastor and Father Froelich to exchange places.

Soda Fountain Shock Kills.

Flint, Mich., July 18.—Elmer Benjamin, eighteen years old, was electrocuted in Holmes & Martin's drug store. Benjamin was a clerk at the soda fountain and the shock that killed him is believed to have come through that medium. Witnesses say he put his hand on an electric globe and leaned against the fountain. He gave one piercing scream and held to the fountain until the fuses were cut out, when he dropped to the floor.

Iowa Falls Man Bankrupt.

Iowa Falls, Ia., July 18.—S. Freedman has filed a petition in bankruptcy and lists his liabilities at $4,000 and assets nothing. A meeting of the creditors will be held July 25. For a year or more past Freedman has been manager of the Blackhawk Chattel Loan company at Waterloo.

Pests Ravage Illinois Oat Crops.

Chicago, July 18.—Army worms and grasshoppers have caused heavy losses to farmers in Kane, Kendall, De Kalb and Will counties. Insects have ravaged oat fields to such an extent that hundreds of acres yield but a half crop.

SENATE PASSES PUBLICITY BILL

House Measure Used as Basis With Amendments Added.

PRIMARIES ARE ALSO INCLUDED

Most Drastic Campaign Legislation Ever Approved by Either Body—Ten Cents Per Voter Is Limit of Expenses—Promises to Be Made Public.

Washington, July 18.—The most drastic campaign publicity legislation ever passed in either branch of congress was adopted by the senate practically without a dissenting vote. Using the pre-election publicity bill passed by the house of representatives as a basis, the senate contructed a proposed law with the following features:

No candidate for the senate or house shall spend in the election more than a sum equal to 10 cents for each vote in his district or state.

No senatorial candidate shall spend a total of more than $10,000 in the primary and general election, and no candidate for the house shall spend more than $5,000.

Publicity must be given to all primary campaign contributions and expenditures.

All general election expenses must be made public before the election, beginning fifteen days before election and making publication each six days until election.

Promises of political jobs must be made public. The bill further makes it illegal to promise political places in order to secure support or to aid in influencing the election of any member of any state legislature.

The bill probably faces prolonged conference between the two houses. It originated in the house as a part of the Democratic legislative program and was designed to require the publication of election expenditures before election, which is not required by the existing publicity law.

The Republicans in the house unsuccessfully attempted to extend the bill to cover primary election expenses. In the senate the primary election amendment, coupled with more radical amendments, was adopted with little opposition.

The senate amendments authorized by the committee on privileges and elections require publicity of all primary election expenses and all pledges of political jobs or favors.

The more rigid portion of the bill, limiting the amount the senatorial or congressional candidate may spend in any election and prohibiting the making of all campaign pledges was proposed by Senator Reed (Mo.) and adopted only after a long debate.

Senator Root (N. Y.) said all senators knew there had been much corruption in elections throughout the country.

Dr. Anna Shaw Returns.

New York, July 18.—A party issue in Norway, in the person of the Rev. Dr. Anna H. Shaw, president of the Women's Suffrage league in America, arrived on the liner New York, fresh from the international convention of suffragists which was held in Stockholm, Sweden, recently. Dr. Shaw brought with her Norwegian newspapers that declared the issues she raised would be fought out in the next national election in Norway.

Mrs. Lea Shows Improvement.

Denver, July 18.—The wife of Senator Lea of Tennessee, who was brought here by her husband because of fear that pneumonia would kill her in the hot moist climate of the east, has been improving every hour since her arrival. Her physician said he no longer considers her condition critical.

tory of this young man—it can scarcely be called history, judging from the point of years, as he is still under the thirties, but in point of accomplishment and industry years do not seem to make the difference nowadays that they made in past time.

Mr. Lippman was born in Maryville, April 8, 1882, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lippman, being the third of five children, the oldest, Charles, Jr., being associated with him in the piano concern in a very important position; Edward G. is vice president of the Vinsonhaler Shoe company of St. Louis; a younger brother, Roy, is farming south of Maryville; an only sister, Flora, lives in Maryville with Mrs. Lippman, on West Fourth street, and it may be of interest to know that this family has lived for nearly forty years on the same home place, and the sons of Mrs. Lippman visit her frequently at the scene of their childhood play days.

Mr. Lippman began his business life in Maryville, in the book and jewelry store of H. T. Crane, and left there to spend ten months in the Spanish-American war service. After a short service in Crane's again, Mr. Lippman next entered the office of N. Sisson & Co., where he remained until he started for Park college, Parkville, Mo. It was at this time that Mr. Lippman's career turned abruptly, an over-use of his eyes during the study at this college forcing him to go to St. Louis for treatment after only six weeks of school. In St. Louis, during optical treatment, he entered the employ of the Vinsonhaler Shoe company, a firm largely owned by Harry Vinsonhaler, formerly a resident of Maryville, and with which Mr. E. G. Lippman is importantly connected. Mr. Lippman was with the shoe house about three years, excepting a short time, during which he worked in the business of insurance.

It was during his spare hours in the shoe business that he started the study of modern business systems, accounting methods, advertising, etc., and the result of this study became apparent when he was asked to take charge of the credit and collection department of the Jesse French Piano company in November, of 1904, without any previous knowledge of the piano business. With an aggressiveness characteristic of all his work, Mr. Lippman stepped into the new business, and after a comprehensive study of the organization planned new systems, methods and innovations which were almost revolutionary in their application, so much so that it took months of hard fighting for Mr. Lippman to convince his superiors, men who had grown gray in the upbuilding of that great institution, that he knew the worth of his theories.

Mr. Lippman's influence was soon apparent in the organization, and it was not long until he became the assistant manager of the St. Louis house; this compelled Mr. Lippman to make a swift and deep study of the art of salesmanship as it applied to the piano business; it was soon apparent that the logical place for his ability was the sales management of the St. Louis division and into this place he was promoted.

Since then many things have happened in the great organization with which Mr. Lippman is identified, and from sales manager of the St. Louis house the move was quick to general manager, director, and last fall he became secretary and treasurer, and, with his brother-in-law, Oscar A. Field, the two young men control that huge business, with branches throughout the west and central states, agencies in hundreds of cities and towns and annual sales of thousands of pianos. A slight idea of their business may be had when it is borne in mind that the company has on hand two thousand pianos.

Chas. F. Lippman Closely Allied With Concern.

Mr. Charles F. Lippman joined his brother, W. A., about six years ago and took a thorough course through the business, till today he holds the very important position of sales manager of the St. Louis division, and is an able lieutenant to Messrs. Field and W. A. Lippman in their management of the general affairs of the concern. Under Mr. Charles Lippman are some of the ablest sales experts in America, and it is a well known fact that the sales organization of the Field-Lippman house holds some of the highest priced men in America, men whose abilities are known from coast to coast. The management of such an organization requires a man of the cool deliberate determination that has been one of Mr. Lippman's characteristics, so well known to his many friends in Maryville. The habit of attention to detail and quick thinking acquired by Mr. Lippman during many years of business in the lumber industry here with the Howell, Rowley and Phares Lumber companies, has stood him in good stead. Mr. Charles Lippman married the oldest daughter of Judge Anthony, and during the years of their residence in Maryville they made hundreds of friends, who have patched with interest and pleasure the rise of Mr. Lippman to a position of such importance.

Mrs. Charles Lippman, like his brother and Mr. Field, passed through various departments of the firm, such as the financial, credit, collection and sales departments, and to his aptitude for sales plans and the handling of men he owed his promotion to the management of the sales department of the St. Louis division.

We say, hurrah for the "Red river special!"

Wheat is making from twenty to thirty-five bushels per acre here in the valley. Oats from twenty to forty bushels per acre. There is talk of sowing a great deal of wheat this fall, as it pays as good or better than corn.

CHOLERA SITUATION IS REASSURING

But One Death and No Cases in New York.

New York, July 18.—The cholera situation at quarantine is reassuring to Dr. Alvah H. Doty, health officer of the port, and his assistants. In the last twenty-four hours there has been one death, but no new cases have been reported and several of the eighteen persons in the Swinburne island hospital are reported convalescent. Some of those now suffering from the plague are seriously ill, however, and the death list may be swollen within the next few days.

FATHER AND TOTS DROWN

St. Louisan and Boy and Girl Sink Into River—Crowd Holds Mother.

St. Louis, July 18.—Frank Ducierveille drowned with his son and daughter, Thomas and Mary, three and thirteen years old, while a crowd on the Mississippi river bank restrained the wife and mother, who tried to leap in after the struggling trio.

While the parents partook of luncheon, seated on the river bank, the children were allowed to sit in a skiff. They boy stood up in the boat and overturned it.

The father dived in where the children were seen to go down and reappeared on the surface for an instant with one in either arm, but thus handicapped was unable to swim.

No Relief for Telephone Girls.

Lincoln, July 18.—Because, in his opinion to Labor Commissioner Guye, telephone companies are neither mechanical, manufacturing nor mercantile institutions, Deputy Attorney General Ayers holds that telephone companies do not violate the law when they employ girls between the hours of 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. The employment of women during these hours is generally forbidden under the female labor law.

General Diaz in Good Health.

Bad-Neuheim, Germany, July 18.—General Porfirio Diaz, the former president of Mexico, is preparing to leave for Paris, being advised by consulting physicians here not to take the waters on account of his age. His health, however, appears excellent. From Paris, Diaz will go to Switzerland, where he will remain throughout the summer.

Convict and Policeman Killed.

Minneapolis, July 18.—In a desperate encounter between a policeman and fugitive Jerry McCarthy, a convict who scaled the walls of the Minnesota penitentiary last May, was shot four times and killed, and Patrolman Ollinger received four bullets in the body, which caused his death.

Edinburgh, July 18.—King George and Queen Mary arrived in the Scottish capital and received a rousing welcome. The city was bright with color, the decorations being the most elaborate that the present generation of Scotchmen have seen.

German Warning to Russia.

BURGESS TELLS OF "JACKPOT"

Testifies in Regard to Conversation With Wiehe.

HELPED PUT LORIMER OVER.

Another Duluth Man Says He Complained That Wisconsin Man Was for Free Lumber After Hines Had Elected Him.

Washington, July 18.—The part officials of the Edward Hines Lumber company took in the election of Senator Lorimer to the senate claimed attention by the Lorimer committee.

William Burgess, an electrical contractor of Duluth, Minn., testified that C. F. Wiehe, secretary of the Edward Hines Lumber company, remarked to him last March that he had subscribed $10,000 to a "jackpot" to elect Lorimer.

Herman H. Hettler, president of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber company of Chicago, a rival to the Hines company, testified that on the day of the election Hines said to him that he personally had elected Lorimer.

On the other hand, Henry Turrish, another business man of Duluth, failed to bear out the testimony of W. H. Cook, a business associate, to the effect that Hines said to them about the time of Lorimer's election that "Old Stephenson" (meaning Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin, so Cook believed) 'after I elected him, was working for free lumber,'" and that the southern Democrats fluctuated in their attitude. Turrish said he remembered nothing about the southern Democrats, but heard Hines say that Stephenson was undecided.

In the testimony of Mr. Burgess the name of a priest, Father Green, was brought into the case as having received a confession from a detective that the detective was employed by a Chicago newspaper to gather "trumped up charges against Lorimer."

Talk With Cook.

On cross-examination, Burgess testified that he was acquainted with W. H. Cook of Duluth, whose versions of conversations with Edward Hines have been disputed by Hines. Burgess said he had talked with Cook about coming to Washington to testify and Cook had merely remarked:

"You'll have a hot time."

"Didn't he say: 'Give 'em h—ll?'" inquired Attorney Haynes.

"He did not."

Burgess said there was no ill-feeling between the Edward Hines Lumber company and himself over a charge he made to the company about ten years ago for the use of a dam in the Black river.

Burgess declared that Wiehe said $100,000 was raised to elect Lorimer. But after Senator Jones had asked why he did not tell that to the Helm committee and suggested that he might have gotten the idea from the newspapers subsequently, Burgess told the committee he was not certain whether Wiehe had said a "jackpot" had been raised.

An affidavit made by Burgess on April 17, which was produced, declared that during the train conversation Wiehe said a detective employed by Editor Kohlsaat had confessed to Father Green that he was employed to get "trumped up" charges against Lorimer. The priest was reputed to have refused absolution unless the confession was put in writing.

Mr. Haynes asked why the witness did not mention "trumped up" charges in his direct examination.

"I don't know," responding the witness. "I cannot say whether he used those words or not, but that was the substance of it."

ASSISTANT TO WILEY FIRED

Department Officials Refuse to Discuss Case of Floyd Robinson.

Washington, July 18.—In connection with the case of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, whose fate as chief of the bureau of chemistry of the agricultural department is in the hands of President Taft, it became known that Floyd Robinson, a member of the bureau of chemistry staff in New York, had been dismissed several weeks ago "for the good of the service." The department officials decline to discuss the case. Dr. Robinson was prominent in aiding Dr. Wiley in the benzoate of soda cases.

Gentleman Burglar Deported.

New York, July 18.—Carl von Metzmeyer, a former army officer in Norway, where his father is rated a wealthy man, will not have to serve time for his robberies in Brooklyn. The Norwegian confessed to a score of burglaries. Judge Dike gave him the choice of five years in Sing Sing or immediate departure for his home in Norway. Metzmeyer, who has been called the "gentleman burglar," was delighted to go home. Judge Dike said it was better to have Metzmeyer out of the country than to have the people paying for his keep in prison.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
